“We went with the medium Meat Head, which contains pepperoni, sliced sweet Italian sausage, ham, ground beef, mozzarella and Monterey Jack cheese. The nicely browned outer crust was crispy and flavorful, and the mountain of fillings inside was a meaty melange of deliciousness.”

“BBQ Chicken pizza... made with chicken, mild red onion, bacon, a thin layer of sweet barbecue sauce and mozzarella, and it was a flavorful combination that my friend and I enjoyed.”

“I tried my first Cannoli that day and found the crispy hollow pastry shell filled with a mixture of sweet ricotta cream and chocolate chips delectable.”

ABOUT STROMBOLI'S

Stromboli's proudly uses an authentic brick oven and hand tosses all of the dough, made in-house daily for the pizzas and strombolis. We believe that hand-tossed dough is superior in quality—it's more tender and chewy and has a much better texture than machine-pressed dough. In short, it tastes the way a true NY-Style pizza tastes. The fact that no two Stromboli's pizzas look alike reflects the quality of our pizza—it's truly handmade using the highest quality ingredients to assure the best flavor.

Stromboli's Declaration of Independents: We are proud to be an independent restaurant (NOT part of a national chain). In other words, Stromboli's is a true “Mom & Pop Shop.”

The restaurant is operated by Ken Stauffer, originally from Lancaster, Pennsylvania, who dreamed of bringing his favorite East Coast strombolis, grinders and pizzas to the Conway area. Gelato, sorbetto, cannolis, paninis and salads round out the menu.

Stromboli's is locally-owned by Robin Morrissey-Stauffer, originally from central Missouri, a Conway graphic design business owner and the founder of Conway's Silver Moon Cinema, now a City of Conway Parks & Recreation event.
